Index to THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY, Volume XXV

October 5, 1931 — May 23, 1932

This Index, prepared by Charles Knapp, has been worked out along the lines followed in the General Index to Volumes I-XVI, and in the separate Indexes to Volumes XVII-XXIV.

The name of an author and the title of an article are given in full only once, at the place where the author's surname appears in the alphabetical sequence. The title of a book reviewed will be found in full only where the name of the author appears in the list given under the caption "Reviews". To the titles of articles or subjects (e. g. Ancient Memory Systems) the names of the authors are not attached; one can readily find the names by looking up the page or the pages specified.

In determining the place of certain items in the general alphabetical sequence, or the place of items within a group or a paragraph, certain initial words, "An" and "The", "Der" and "Die", are disregarded.

"Aeneid: Vergil" = "For the Aeneid see under Vergil"; "Amor: Cupid" = "For Amor see Cupid"; "Ancient Corinth: Reviews, O'Neill" = "see Reviews, under the name O'Neill"; "see above", "see below" = "see above", "see below" under the same caption (i. e. in the same paragraph or group of entries).

THE CLIMAX SERIES

R. V. D. Magoffin, Editor

****

LATIN—FIRST YEAR

Magoffin and Henry

LATIN—SECOND YEAR

Berry and Lee

LATIN—FOURTH YEAR

Burton and Gummere

Don't make the mistake of waiting another year before introducing the Climax Series to your students. Teachers who have put these books into their classrooms have nothing but praise to offer for the genuine interest aroused for the study of Latin and the increased ability of their students to understand and master the subject. (LATIN—THIRD YEAR, Lord and Woodruff, in preparation.)

CLASSICAL MYTHS THAT LIVE TODAY (Sabin)

"...presents hundreds of fascinating old stories of Greek and Roman mythology, linking them with our literature, our art, and our common speech. A wealth of pictures, mostly new, aid in this service. Questions, exercises, and reading lists abound".—School and Society, issue of April 2, 1932.

MANUSCRIPTS OF TERENCE

PRIOR TO THE THIRTEENTH CENTURY

By L. W. JONES and C. R. MOREY

THIS volume is the commentary on the complete corpus of the Terence miniatures, comprising almost eight hundred reproductions, which appeared last year. The text volume affords a complete description of each manuscript and an analysis of its illustrations, and provides also such determination as is possible of the date and provenance of each codex, and the particular variety of medieval style which is represented by its illustrations. The concluding chapter summarizes the findings of the authors and includes a presentation of the descent of the illustrative tradition in Terence manuscripts, as well as a discussion of the relative value of the manuscripts as representatives of the archetype, which was written and illustrated in the fifth century A.D.

The two volumes together are priced at thirty dollars. They are sold separately at the price of twelve dollars for the Text volume and twenty dollars for the volume of Plates.
